Remarks:

1. The application for a Schengen visa must be submitted to the Embassy or the Consulate of the country of the European Union which is the main destination. It is possible that the main destination is not the first country visited by the applicant. If the duration of the stay in the different Schengen countries is the same, the applicant must submit his visa request to the Embassy/Consulate of the first visited Schengen country.
2. Applicants with ordinary passport should submit the visa application in person. Applicants with official passports (diplomatic passport, service passport, and public passport) can submit their applications via a messenger from the Chinese official department.
3. The Embassy/the Consulate reserves the right to interview the applicant in person.
4. If the visa is issued, the Embassy/the Consulate reserves the right to request the applicant to present him/herself in person to the Embassy/the Consulate upon his/her return to China.
5. For documents in Chinese, English or French translations have to be provided.

Visa fee:

The visa fee of short stay (maximum 90 days) must be paid at the time when the application is submitted. The amount in RMB will be calculated according to the latest foreign exchange rate, as set by the European Central Bank. The visa fee will not be refunded in case of refusal.
